KAISER'S ABDICATION IS IMMINENT

Control of Congress Is Claimed by Both Parties

ABDICATION OF KAISER IS BEING DISCUSSED IN EUROPEAN CAPITOLS

By Associated Press

Zurich, Nov. 6th.—Emperor William's abdication has become imminent, according to information received from Berlin by the Munich Post. Newspapers say that serious differences have arisen between Munich and Berlin governments, and the Hohenzollerns and the military party would be making a mistake to play with fire, for the people are by no means inclined to remain passive.

PARIS DISCUSSING ABDICATION.

Paris, Nov. 6th.—The newspapers here are studying the references made in Germany and Swiss press in regard to the probable abdication of Emperor William. There seems to be a general opinion that his abdication is being discussed openly by the press because of its probable effect upon the situation. The Temps says, "It is with the hope of swaying the Allies or even disuniting them that the Germans may sacrifice William the Second. They may offer this abdication to us and the people of Europe as a definite victory for the Allies. With its territory and economic riches intact the empire is safeguarded with or without the Hohenzollerns."

Washington, Nov. 6.—The abdication of the kaiser still is a mooted question in Germany, according to reports reaching Washington through official channels. The military clique and the Pan Germans are making a desperate effort to save the house of Hohenzollern, while the socialist leaders and others demand its fall. The officials expect the near future will reveal the full extent of the numerous intrigues.

GERMANS FALL BACK.

Paris, Nov. 6.—The retreat of the Germans along the whole of the French front continues. The French are in contact with the enemy's rear guards north of the Marne. The French have passed beyond Voharies, five miles southwest of the important railway junction at Vervins.

FRENCH MAKE BIG GAINS.

Paris, Nov. 6.—The French have crossed the river Aisne on both sides of Rethel, capturing Barby, west of Rethel. North of the Argonne the French have also moved forward, reaching the outskirts of Lametz and Lagassine.

CENTERING ON AMERICANS.

With the Americans at Sedan, Nov. 6.—German resistance against the American pressure west of the Meuse, stiffened considerably today, the Germans using their artillery, gas and machine guns.

In their retreat east of the Meuse the Germans are destroying all property and cutting down trees across the roadway.

It is believed the Germans have used all their reserves on the front opposite the Americans, the last division of the enemy on this sector having been thrown in in the effort to stem the American advance.

REPORTS INDICATE THE DEMOCRATS WILL KEEP CONTROL IN CONGRESS

Associated Press.

Washington, Nov. 6.—The Democratic National committee headquarters early today claimed the senate would be Democratic by at least one, and that the final returns would show a small margin in favor of the Democrats in the house.

RESULT IS CLOSE.

Washington, Nov. 6.—Returns received by the National committee were said to show definitely the election of forty-nine Democratic senators, while in the house two hundred and fifteen seats were assigned to the Democrats, two hundred and four to the Republicans and the remainder doubtful.

TIMES AND WORLD GIVE UP.

New York, Nov. 6.—Both the New York Times and the New York World this morning concede that the Republican party will control the next congress. The Times claims a majority of four in the senate and nineteen in the house.

LOOKS BAD FOR CLARK.

One of the greatest surprises of Tuesday's election was the possibility that Speaker Champ Clark of Missouri, had been defeated in his home district. This is not yet an assured fact, however.

DEMOCRATIC LEADERS ELECTED.

The Democratic leaders in congress, Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, and Representative Kitchin, of North Carolina, were re-elected, as were the house Republican leader, Representative Mann, of Illinois, and the acting leader, Representative Gillett, of Massachusetts. Former Speaker Joseph G. Cannon, of Illinois, was re-elected to what will be his twenty-second term in congress, a record interrupted by only two defeats.

REPUBLICAN CLAIM SENATE.

New York, Nov. 6.—Republican headquarters issued a statement early this afternoon in which they claim a majority of at least five, and possibly six, in the United States senate.

NOMINEES ELECTED IN BRAZOS COUNTY

Morehead Defeated Nunn and Pool Distanced Atkins.

The Brazos county election, held yesterday, was a tame affair, a very light vote being polled and small interest shown.

There was only two contests, the friends of T. C. Nunn asking the voters to write his name on the ballot and scratch L. E. Morehead, the regular nominee of the run-off primary. The other contest was in the commissioner's race from Precinct No. 1. In this precinct, F. H. Pool, of Millican, defeated J. M. Atkins, the present incumbent, who filed a contest in the district court and upon the trial of the case was declared the nominee by Judge H. S. Morehead.

Notwithstanding this decree of the court, and the fact that Mr. Atkins' name was printed on the ballots, the people of the county would not stand for it and such effort to thwart the will of a free and untrammelled people, the same spirit was responsible for the result in the Nunn-Morehead contest. The vote in the two contests, without the Steele's Store box, was as follows:

Courthouse—Morehead, 168; Nunn, 53.
City Hall—Morehead, 119; Nunn, 26.
Edge—Morehead, 59; Nunn, 13.
Smetana—Morehead, 29; Nunn, 35.
Cottonwood—Morehead, 44; Nunn, 1.
College—Morehead, 74; Nunn, 31.
Kurtin—Morehead, 71; Nunn, 2.
Bethel—Morehead, 83; Nunn, 3.
Millican—Morehead, 71; Nunn, 6.
Wellborn—Morehead, 58; Nunn, 12.
Total—Morehead, 775; Nunn, 182.
In the commissioners' race the different boxes gave the following result: Wellborn—Pool, 28; Atkins, 53.
Millican—Pool, 134; Atkins, 4.
Bethel—Pool, 76; Atkins, 13.
College—Pool, 30; Atkins, 79.
Total—Pool, 268; Atkins, 149.

GERMANS SENT WIRE REGARDING CIVILIANS

(By Associated Press)

With the Allies in France, Nov. 6.—In a wireless yesterday addressed to the French and American commanders the Germans reminded the allies that there were many civilians in the villages north of the Franco-American front, and suggested their artillerymen be advised.

The message, which was signed by the German field commander, named none of the villages, however.

GERMAN GUNS ON FRENCH CIVILIANS

(By Associated Press)

With the Americans at Sedan, Nov. 6.—Beaumont village, where there are over four hundred French civilians, is the particular target of the Germans. All last night they deluged Beaumont with poison gas. The American troops continued to advance today between the Meuse and Bar, advancing at one place over three miles.

MAYOR OF FORT WORTH.

Fort Worth, Nov. 6.—W. D. Davis was re-elected mayor of this city by one of the largest majorities ever given a mayoralty candidate in Fort Worth, receiving almost a thousand votes more than the combined ballots of both opponents and carrying every precinct in the city except one. Practically the entire old city administration was re-elected.

Port Arthur, Nov. 6.—Each employee of the Gulf Refining company received a letter from the Gulf Oil corporation, the parent concern, that the corporation had taken out life insurance for all its employees ranging from $1,000 to $25,000, according to time and service. SEVERE RIOTING OCCURRED AT KIEL

(By Associated Press)

Amsterdam, Nov. 6.—Severe rioting occurred at Kiel Sunday afternoon at a meeting of sailors and laborers, addressed by an independent Socialist speaker. WOMEN VOTES THROWN OUT.

In a most able decision Judge H. S. Morehead of the district court yesterday handed down his opinion regarding the constitutionality of the recent enactment of the legislature which permitted the voting of women in the primaries. The decision of Judge Morehead was occasioned by the contest case of Atkins vs. Pool, for certification as commissioner of number one district.

The determination of the decision thus involved raises the question as to the validity and the constitutionality of what is known as "The Woman's Suffrage Act" enacted at the last session of the legislature. By the terms of this act women of the state were given the right to vote at the primary elections.

According to the decision of Judge Morehead this act was in direct opposition to section 2, article 6, of the state constitution, which specifically states that all MALE persons who shall have attained the age of 21 years shall be entitled to vote. While the constitution does not specifically exclude the women from the ballot, it does implicitly give the right to males.

The contestee held out that the primary was not a constitutional election and thereby the women should have the right to vote in this. Judge Morehead decided differently on this issue and cited the supreme court of New Jersey, wherein that body, in passing upon the question, held that a primary was a constitutional election and declared the act void because the legislature had attempted to fix qualifications for voters which were different from those prescribed by the constitution.

It is a well established legal fact that a constitutional amendment cannot be changed except by vote of the majority of the people and that a state legislature has not the vested power to alter a single action or article.

Primarily the constitution is the right of the people and the whole system of government in the United States is laid down and based on it. Therefore, as it is made by the people, it can not be changed save by the people.

The decision of Judge Morehead is a well written document and the law is plainly interpreted. This decision affects the whole state and while it is merely a dictum of a particular case, the entire judiciary of the state must take cognizance of it until the supreme court holds differently.

It was not a political decision in which either contestant or the suffrage movement was favored, but it was a just decision, based squarely upon the only logical interpretation of the law.

Ultimately the women of Texas will have a voice in all elections but this power must come from all the people and not a few men at Austin.

Mayor John M. Lawrence has issued his proclamation designating Wednesday, November 6th, as "clean up" day. Will you not stand by our mayor and lend your cooperation in putting Bryan in first class sanitary condition? The cleanliness of the city depends upon the citizenship after all, regardless of the activities of the officials. Without full cooperation the results of a clean up campaign are never fully satisfactory.

The Eagle can see no valid reason why the express wagon with its long train of trailers, should not properly observe the traffic regulations of the city. We cannot understand why this lengthy express caravan should twist and squirm along Main street, zigzagging from one side to the other, blocking traffic and inviting accidents. It was not intended that our laws should mean one thing to one man and something else to another.

The food administrator of Arkansas says in that state there are 128,105 sheep and 238,307 dogs. Evidently the people of Arkansas are neglecting their dogs.—Houston Post. Colonel Bailey has evidently forgotten his boyhood days back in old Nawth Caliny, and the number of dogs it required to harvest a large and well-developed "possum crop."

The name of Woodrow Wilson will live forever. His fame will not be that of Nero, Napoleon or Benedict Arnold, but that of one of the world's greatest patriots, benefactors and PEACE MAKERS. What an example to be followed by the men who are to come after him!

There were some brand new kinks in today's election—a new wrinkle in Brazos county politics. It was one of the eccentricities of the primary law; however, with all its faults we love it better than the old cut and dried, snap judgment convention system.

The "flu" is practically a thing of the past, cotton prices are advancing, sweet potatoes are plentiful and everything looks lovely and the goose is hanging high.

WIT AND HUMOR.

Teaching Rookies.

Efforts of "rookies" at the training camp near Vancouver, Wash., to master the details of army life sometimes bring grief. A giant of a youth from the Middle West sent to camp with a detail of other men had the rule pounded into his head that every time he saw an officer he was to salute.

Having acquired that information, and having drilled in the proper form of saluting for three hours, the giant youth was detailed to "kitchen police," and sent to mop up an officer's room. While so engaged the officer entered.

Anxious to put his newly acquired knowledge to use, the unfortunate youth—not knowing that officers are not saluted in their rooms or offices—swung his mop to "attention" and saluted with his left hand. In bringing the mop to upright position he bathed the officer's collar with dirty water.

"Put that mop down!" shouted the officer.

The youth slammed it down, and swabbed off a nice new shine on the officer's boots in so doing—Detroit Free Press.

PATRIOTIC CAREFULNESS.

Galveston News.

"Why not patriotic carefulness?" asks the general manager of the national board of fire underwriters in the course of a discussion of fire waste. The thought is worthy of consideration by the people. The people of this country have been patriotically thrifty during the war, and as a result of that thrift they are billions of dollars more wealthy than they were before they developed the habit of saving their money to be invested in liberty bonds. They have demonstrated to their own abundant satisfaction that it is possible to feed an army by saving what they had been accustomed to wasting.

The people of America have been in the habit of wasting more than two dollars per capita every year through permitting fires to destroy $250,000,000 of property each year. Their fire waste is greater than that of any other nation on earth. And most of the fires that cause this great destruction are preventable fires.

The thought is in connection with the general observance of fire and accident prevention day, which, by executive proclamation, was set for Saturday. In the proclamations by the several governors of the states it was pointed out that fire loss is absolute destruction of property. It differs from most other so-called losses in that it is not a transfer of wealth or of the products of labor, which is the same thing, but annihilation of it. The goods that belonged to one yesterday and to another today are still of benefit to society. But the goods that were in existence yesterday and are ashes today are of no benefit to anybody, nor ever can be. They are gone.

So for a season of years it has been the object of economists and statesmen and frugal persons and good citizens who thought of the situation to teach the people of the United States the important lesson that fire waste is utter waste. To that end it came about that one day a year generally has been set aside and called fire prevention day in order that state and municipal officers and schools and civic authorities might instruct the people in methods of preventing fire waste. It must be admitted that this instruction sometimes has gone unheeded, and that the net results in reducing fire waste have not always been satisfactory.

But the awakening of America through the war to the need of conservation and thrift and solidarity of the community has led to the belief that Americans are now ready to adopt another old world custom, and to profit by reducing the waste that is imported in fires that might be prevented. Americans are in a period of extraordinary mental stimulation as a result of their participation in the war. They are open to conviction in lines where their minds once were closed. Ideas have sprung up here that would have been of very slow growth a few years ago. Things that we were wont to say could not be done have been done quickly and well and without hardship. Almost anything that used to be deemed impossible can be accomplished in approached in a proper manner. So it is not too much to believe that our besetting carelessness with fire and fire-inviting situations may be reversed to become carelessness.

America is characteristically careless nation. But Americans are capable of doing things better and more expeditiously than the people of most other nations. Just as they have carried on the war and the manifold war activities that involved complete change in their attitude toward other peoples and each other, they can make quick and effective change in their attitude toward fire waste. And if they get the point of view as to fire waste that they have made illuminating as to ordinary everyday thrift with money and food and clothing, the figures on fire losses in America will recede from the column of big things to which we look with pride—for they do not belong in that column. Americans are justified in their boast that their country is big and resourceful in worthy things—but all big figures are of ground for pride. The big figures showing fire waste should be wiped out.

Maybe we soon shall learn that if it will win a war for each citizen to save a spoonful of sugar and a slice of bread a day, it will add to the wealth and well-being of the people to prevent needless destruction by fire of elevators and warehouses that contain millions of slices of bread and spoonfuls of sugar. The object of fire prevention day is to impress this thought upon the active minds of a hundred millions of Americans, just as they have received the thrift idea and done wonders with it.

LEMONS MAKE SKIN WHITE, SOFT, CLEAR

Make this beauty lotion for a few cents and see for yourself.

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes; to whiten the skin and to bring out the roses, the freshness and the hidden beauty? But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white this way. Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well and you have a whole quart of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle, then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When applied daily to the face, neck, arms and hands it should help to bleach, clear, smoothen and beautify the skin.

Any druggist will supply three ounces of orchard white at very little cost and the grocer has the lemons.—Adv.

Since Mr. Wilson's now celebrated fourteen points have to do with the terms of peace, there is an obvious error in the Rome report that the terms of an armistice offered Austria are based on these fourteen points. What was probably meant is that the armistice offered to Austria follows the pattern which Mr. Wilson sketched for the consideration of Germany, one, namely, which leaves Austria helpless to renew the struggle, and

No Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. CHANGED.

(By Iaan McKay.)

Each bird that I saw used to warble a song,
The sunbeams caressed a bright world,
And the colors of dawn were of roseate hue,
As the rosebuds their petals unfurled.
The children I passed had a smile on their face,
Placed there by the touch of His hand,
And I laughed with delight as I watched them at play,
A bright, happy, carefree young band!

Oh, the world was a wonderful old place to live,
With happiness around on all sides;
For I smiled with the rest for I was content,
To be swept on with Time's mighty tides.

But now the birds which I see will sing no more,
The sunbeams have stopped their bright gleam,
The rosebuds are faded and lay crushed and dead,
While the children—how strange they all seem!
The world is a dreary and weary old place,
And my happiness is gone, it is true,
It all changed in a moment—my wonderful dream.
And I awoke, to find I'd lost you!

Judging from the number of notes Germany is sending to the United States the present war has not affected the cost of cable messages.

ALL CHILDREN LOVE 'SYRUP OF FIGS' FOR LIVER AND BOWELS

Give it when feverish, cross, bilious, for bad breath or sour stomach.

Look at the tongue, Mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative"; they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.

CHRISTMAS BOXES FOR SOLDIERS HERE

Many Precious Packages for Boys "Over There" Will Go Forward.

The local Red Cross has received official Christmas boxes for the soldiers and same can now be secured by presenting the Christmas Parcel Label at the Red Cross office, room 24, Astin building. The boxes will be given out from the office of the secretary, and a complete list kept of all names to whom boxes are sent from the Brazos county chapter. This is the only part of the service, however, that will be conducted from the Red Cross office. H. C. Fulham is chairman of the Christmas parcels committee and the ware room next door to the Lawrence Grocery company will be the Christmas Parcel Receiving Station. Look for the Red Cross sign. When you have secured your box and filled it according to instructions, take it to the parcels receiving station, unwrapped, for inspection and weighing. Then Mr. Fulham and his assistants will inspect and weigh and wrap every box according to directions sent from the headquarters. Following is the Christmas Parcels committee: H. C. Fulham, W. D. Lawrence, J. D. Martin, J. Tom Smith, Mrs. Strange, Mrs. John M. Lawrence, Mrs. J. W. Cavitt, Mrs. J. P. Lavender, Mrs. J. M. Saladiner, Miss Ludmiller Hajek, Miss Mary McInnis, Miss Ethel Cavitt.

If you have received a Christmas parcel label, take it to the Red Cross office at once and secure a box, pack it and take it to the receiving station at your earliest convenience. This will tend to avoid a rush during the last few days. No packages will be accepted by the Red Cross for shipment after November 20. The receiving station will be open Friday, November 15, to Wednesday, November 20, inclusive, from 2 to 5 p. m. each day.

To insure Christmas boxes for the boys "over there" reaching their destination, the following rules must be strictly complied with. "Do not mail the box yourself; it must be sent through the Red Cross receiving station. After the box is weighed, inspected and wrapped, the official label will be pasted on it, the name and address of the sender written on the face of the package toward the upper left hand corner and sufficient postage affixed (to be paid by the shipper) to carry the package to Hoboken, N. J. Parcel post zone rates will be charged. All this will be done by the Red Cross committee.

Packages must remain in the custody of the Red Cross until delivered to the postal authorities.

Keep these facts in mind, for they are imperative.

The Brazos Red Cross is prepared to serve every one who presents an official Christmas label and invites you to call.

WHAT FOUR BRAZOS COUNTY BOYS SAY

Tell in Their Own Way and Words Their Idea of the War Welfare Organizations.

The following is what four Brazos county boys have to say, in their own words, about the Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., Knights of Columbus and the other welfare organizations for which Brazos county is to raise $14,000 next week in the United States War Work Campaign.

Napoleon Saladiner in a recent letter to home folks says, "If the Red Cross or Y. M. C. A. wants anything, give it to them. They are our best friends over here."

Clarence H. Kelly writing to Father Gleason says:

"Don't worry about me. The Y. M. C. A. and the K. of C. take splendid care of us. All sorts of amusements are furnished to us in their huts. Whenever there is a K. of C. hall near by I go there to write letters, read or amuse myself with the boys in some way or another. Often I visit also the "Y" huts and receive always a hearty welcome. Sometimes it happens that we have services by our chaplains in the "Y" halls or that the protestant chaplains preach in our K. of C. huts, because it is now convenient or nearer to them. During the K. of C. drive for $3,000,000 we watched the papers, and how happy we were to know that you went over the top. You don't know what new life and energy it puts into us to see that you are behind us with your dollars. I go more fearlessly to the battle field knowing that you are praying daily with your people for God's protection for us. Walter Sikorski writes: A place of rest and amusement, a place almost homelike is every K. of C. hut to me. The Salvation Army is also doing great work for us.

Lee Silver, a negro formerly employed by J. M. Caldwell as a dairy hand says in a recent letter to Mr. Caldwell: "The Y. M. C. A. is doing a wonderful lot of good for us here. The "Y" is our home. We have church and all kinds of games and they are teaching the boys who do not know how to read and write."

Those four letters—Y. M. C. A.—spell comfort for your boy, amusement, sympathy. Not all of war is fighting. He isn't always going over the top or killing Huns. A lot of time he is just tired or homesick or lonely. It is then that he thinks of you. It is then that he longs for home. And if you can't be with him, you can help him to follow home.

At least two years will be required to complete demobilization of American forces in France, according to estimates of allied military leaders. Gen. T. Colentan Dupont, who has just returned from two months' visit to the western front, where he conferred with high officials in each of the allied governments, brought this estimate back as the minimum expectation of army officials. "Military officials have been urging us to think in terms of a long war," said General Dupont, "and now they are equally insistent that we begin to accustom ourselves to the thought of long demobilization. There is an immense task ahead of our forces when peace is declared. As one of our generals said to me, 'Tell the people back home it will be two years at least, before they see us all. We have a year's work just to untangle barbed wire that has been strung back and forth across France.' It must never be said of America that she left her task half done," the general continued. "We owe everything to France, and our men will have to stand by until they have done what they can to set her on roads to restoration, and while they stand by over there, it is going to be tremendously important we stand by them over here."

"This fact gives double importance to United War Work campaign, which I am glad to find so well under way. No one who has of lived with our boys can imagine how vitally important this service of these seven organizations is; no one who has studied history of other wars can overstate their importance in the period of demobilization. The civil war destroyed careers of hundreds of promising young men. It turned them back into civil life, weakened and purposeless. This war must not do that. Boys who have sacrificed so much to win it must come back stronger and better men than when they left. I found War Work Agencies in France laying statesmanlike plans for this trying period.

Loosen your purse strings, pour out the gold! Put yourself in the other man's place. Pray for a vision. Let some dream come to you of what it would mean if you were transported suddenly from the softness and ease of your life to a world of fire and flame and horror.

Wouldn't you want the light of a little hut to shine out for you? Would you not want the smiling woman's face, the touch of a friendly hand? Wouldn't you think of that hut as the only oasis in a Desert of Dreadful Things?

Put yourself in his place, and if you can't fight with him, at least spend your money for him. Spend as much as you can—and then spend more. He's worth it and he's worth it not only because he's your lad and my lad, but because he's fighting for the honor of your country, and for the world's need of freedom from the Hun!

19 YEAR OLD BOY HAS MADE GOOD ON FRENCH FRONT

Kicks on Being Kissed by French Generals When Medals Are Given Out.

Paris, Nov. 5.—The only decorations worn by Private Luke Thayer, Jr., of the United States marines up to two years ago were those received about his optics when he settled his disputes in the good old Yankee way.

Today, Luke, who is a trifle over 19 years old, wears three campaign ribbons, a croix de guerre with a palm, two wound stripes and two other stripes indicating a year's service in France.

Incidentally he is wearing half a dozen scars from boche shrapnel and bullets.

Luke is the son of the chief of police at Georgetown, Pa. He was living at 1707 Arch street, Philadelphia when a recruiting poster caught his eye and he decided to see the world through the medium of the U. S. marine corps travel agency. By stretching his five feet six to the full limit and by looking the recruiting officer in the eye without blushing while he swore he was within the legal age limit for enlisting, Luke got into the "Soldiers of the Sea."

The story of Luke's adventures since that date came out in this city when, while convalescing in a large military hospital, he got permission to visit the headquarters of the Knights of Columbus so that he could obtain free smokes and entertainment. He got both and I got his story.

Within a few months after Luke enlisted he earned his first campaign ribbon by helping to impress the night of Uncle Sam on some of the natives of San Domingo. A jaunt to Haiti was next in order where he acquired another ribbon.

It was at Belleau woods that Luke earned the right to wear the war cross with a palm. A detachment of the marines was with a French regiment at the time. On a little hillock well camouflaged by a lump of bushes, two German machine guns were spitting death into the ranks of the French and the marines. Twelve volunteers were called for to storm the two nests and Luke was one of the 12.

The 12 divided into two bodies, but of the five with Luke only one got as far as the objective with him. The others were either killed or wounded. Three grenades well placed by the boy from Pennsylvania finished up the crew of the gun he was after.

Over the other part of the hillock Luke noticed his "pals" were having a tough time. He turned the gun he had captured on the Germans still fighting with the other "bullet splitter," but routed a counter attack made by about 30 of the boche. Aid arrived a little later but before that time fragments of a shell had put Thayer out of action temporarily. Since that time he's recovered enough to have had the war cross pinned on him and he's happy, for the surgeons have told him he'll get back into action soon.

"This wouldn't be such a bad old war," said Thayer, "if only those French generals wouldn't insist on kissing a guy when they pin a medal on him."

Washington, Nov. 5.—A drive to secure 35,000 volunteers from limited service men, urgently needed to fill special posts in the army, was begun today by the department of labor's employment service at the request of the war department. The men are wanted for duty in this country and will be used to release more active men for service overseas.

LEONARD MOREHEAD HOME.

Leonard Morehead, Democratic nominee for sheriff of Brazos county, returned last night after an absence of some weeks from the city and was on the streets today greeting friends.

Mr. Morehead stated to a representative of the Daily Eagle that when he left Bryan he went to the home of his brother, in Anderson county, whose wife was ill and who died soon after his arrival. Later he was taken ill himself and had a very severe attack of influenza, being unconscious for about six days during the time. After his recovery he visited other relatives in Anderson and Houston counties and was in that part of the country all the time of his absence. He spent part of the time hunting after his recovery and, all together, had a most enjoyable visit.

Mr. Morehead says he wants it distinctly understood that when he went away it was purely of his own accord and not at the suggestion of any man, set of men, attorneys or any one else. He also paid his own way, he says, and was not taken care of by others, as it has been reported.

He further stated that if he had known it was so anxiously desired that he return home, he certainly would have come, for he feared the issue that he might be joined with reference to his election to the office of sheriff. He said he made two races, won them both and did not know that it was desired or necessary that he make a third or fourth race in order to retain the nomination at the hands of the Democratic party.

Why Putter With Corns? Use "Gets-It"

Common-Sense, Simple, Never Fails.

You can tear out your corns and suffer, or you can peel off your corns and smile. The joy-peeling way is the "Gets-It" way. It is the only happy, painless way in the world. Two drops of "Gets-It" on any corn or callus dries at once. The corn finally loosens off from the toe, so that you can peel it off with your fingers in one piece, painlessly, like peeling a banana. "Great stuff, wish I'd done that before." There's only one corn-peeler—"Gets-It." Toes wrapped up big with tape and bandages, toes squirming from irritating salves, it's all a barbarity. Toes wounded by razors and knives, that's butchery, ridiculous, unnecessary, dangerous. Use "Gets-It," the sure, safe, simple, painless, always sure, safe, no chances. Get "Gets-It." Don't be insulted by imitations. See that you get "Gets-It." "Gets-It," the guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, the only sure way, costs but a trial at any drug store. M'd by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

GERMANS STRENGTHEN LINE

With the Americans at Verdun, Nov. 5.—German forces are strengthening the Meuse line north of the American front in various places. The front on this line is where the Germans have expected to make their last stand in France. Tank traps have been constructed. The traps are area hundred yards long, ten wide and ten deep and covered with boards hidden by earth and sod.

GOOD NEWS FROM PERSHING

Washington, Nov. 5.—Victorious attacks by the American first army on the entire front are reported in Gen. Pershing's communication for Monday. On the extreme right end breaking down the last effort of the enemy to hold the high ground the Americans drive through the valley of Meuse and the Forest of Dieulet and occupied the important river crossing at Stenay.

FRENCH PURSUE GERMANS

Paris, Nov. 5.—French troops continue successfully to pursue the Germans in the region of Guise, northeast of which they have taken Bergues, Sur, Sambre. AMERICANS CROSS MEUSE

With the Americans at St. Quentin, Nov. 5.—Bitter fighting is taking place today along the Meuse river. American patrols have succeeded in crossing the river at Brisselles on pontoon bridges constructed under fire. At other points along the front the Americans were reconnoitering for another crossing. The Germans have destroyed the bridges across the Meuse between Laneville on the west bank and the important town of Stenay on the east bank. Pouilly in a cend of the Meuse northeast of Stenay was captured by Americans operating west of the Meuse. The west bank of the river is now held entirely as far north as Pouilly.

Troops which crossed to the east side of the Meuse found their advance opposed by bitter machine gun and artillery fire. This has been overcome however, and the Americans are making steady advance. Beaumont has been taken and Stenay now is half surrounded.

W. L. CLOSS, WELL KNOWN CITIZEN DEAD

Succumbed to Bronchial Pneumonia After a Brief Illness.

The hundreds of friends in Bryan of W. L. Closs were shocked this morning to learn of his death, which occurred last night at 9:30 o'clock at the Bryan Hospital. Comparatively few of the people knew of his illness which made the news of his death the sadder and more depressing.

He was taken ill on last Thursday with bronchial pneumonia and went at once to the Bryan Hospital where he was given every attention, both in medical skill and attentive nursing, but the hand of the grim reaper was not to be stayed, and death ensued at the hour stated.

Mr. Closs was 52 years of age, was raised in this county and was a son of the late Capt. and Mrs. J. T. Closs. He was a good man and citizen and held in the highest esteem by all who knew him. He had been connected with several of Bryan's business firms but for the past few years was engaged in merchandising at Tabor, closing out his business there only a short time ago to accept a position with the firm of Sam B. Wilson and Company.

He is survived by two brothers, Tom Closs of Edge, Morgan Closs of Harris School House, and one sister, Mrs. Fannie Kirlicks of Dallas. He is also survived by his step mother, Mrs. J. T. Closs of Smetana. The bereaved relatives have the deep sympathy of neighbors and friends in their great sorrow.

The funeral will be held from the Danby Furniture Company this afternoon at 4 o'clock with interment following at Wixon church cemetery.

SNAP SHOTS (Galveston News)

As the general thing when a man acts like he is so busy he doesn't want to talk to you it is a bad time to begin a conversation concerning the rise and fall of the Roman Empire.

At the moment of writing, it looks like this year's Thanksgiving is going to have considerable edge on last year's.

A schoolboy's idea of hard luck is for Spanish influenza to attack so many soldiers and leave the school teachers almost untouched.

Maybe you also have noticed that the average girl would rather have one young man to knit for than a whole family to sew for.

Our position simply is that just because a man is from Missouri is no reason why he should see everything.

Mr. Peavish says that although he claims to be as sensitive as the average he has learned not to feel cut to the quick when Mrs. Peavish looks daggers at him.

MAJ. B. FISK WRIGHT KILLED IN ACTION

News Came to His Family Tuesday in a Telegram From Washington.

Once more the horrors of this terrible war have been brought close home to the people of Bryan by the death of one of our brave officers while leading his men in action on the bloody field of Mars—the western front. Major Benjamin Fisk Wright made the supreme sacrifice on October 8 and now sleeps that eternal sleep in a hero's grave beneath the lilies of France.

The terrible news was conveyed to his wife, who is staying for the present with her sister, Mrs. E. H. Astin, in a telegram from the war department at Washington yesterday afternoon. The news came as a terrible, withering blow, yet the length of time that had elapsed since the date given as the time of his death, caused his loved ones to hope against hope that it was all a mistake, that there was some confusion in the report. This morning, however, a letter came from Major Weathered, a close friend of Major Wright, to his wife, telling her of the great sacrifice and how bravely he died at the head of his regiment, rallying his men to action.

Major Wright was born in Waco, Texas, August 16, 1888, making him just a few months past 30 years of age. He was a graduate of the A. and M. College, class 1911, and during his senior year was captain of the Ross Volunteers, major of the regiment and also president of the senior class. It was while in College that he met Miss Ray Conway, of this city, and they were united in marriage in 1913. One child was born to them, sweet little Sue Conway Wright, who kissed her daddy goodbye when his country called him, and who will never again, through all the coming years, feel the joy of a father's embrace, or twine her soft little arms about his neck.

Besides his wife and baby, he is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Wright, of Waco, and his sisters, Miss Alberta Wright, of Waco; Mrs. S. E. Morris, of Fort Worth; Mrs. McGee, of Waco, and two brothers, John and Jim Wright, both of Waco.

Major Wright had been in the service for two and a half years, giving all for his country and his name will live with that illustrious list of earth's immortals forever.

God bless you, little mother; God bless you little baby, left alone in your sorrow! May the blessed Christ leaning down from the stars, place His nail-pierced hand upon your crushed and bleeding hearts and bring you that peace which passeth all understanding.

HAD BAPTISM OF BLOOD

With the Americans in Russia, Nov. 5.—Within a few hours after leaving their train, the American troops on this sector were given their baptism of fire. They had hardly relieved the French contingent in the outposts when the Bolsheviks opened upon them with shrapnel and machine guns. The officers were highly elated over the manner in which these recruits stood up under their first fire.

FOR COLDS AND GRIPPE DOCTORS FIND REMEDY

Physicians and druggists are elated over the fact that they have at last found a genuine and dependable remedy for colds, sore throat and la grippe. For years they have depended chiefly upon the old style calomel, which is certainly fine, but unfortunately many people would not take it because of its nauseating and dangerous qualities.

Now that the pharmaceutical chemists have perfected a nauseous calomel, called "Calotabs" whose medical virtues are vastly improved, the doctors and druggists are claiming that Calotabs are the ideal remedy to abort a cold over night and cut short an attack of sore throat or la grippe. They are also finding it most effective as the first step in the treatment of pneumonia.

One Calotab on the tongue at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with your eating or your work and pleasure. The next morning your cold has vanished and your whole system is purified and refreshed. Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages; price thirty-five cents. Your druggist recommends and guarantees them by refunding the price if you are not delighted.—adv.

WIT AND HUMOR

Kaiser's Last Rise.
"The Kaiser" said Representative Bell of Georgia, "complains because the Americans use shotguns. Shotguns have a spread of fifteen feet. In repulsing a charge they are deadlier than machine guns. So the Kaiser holds that it is unchivalrous to use them."

"The baby-killing Kaiser, the beginner of poison gas war and liquid flame war, is horrified that shotguns should be used against him."

"The Kaiser has sunk so low that when he dies he'll need a balloon to get to hell."—Detroit Free Press.

Between Friends.
At a Red Cross hog sale held down in Arkansas, generously disposed people donated porkers for the occasion. Pink Jackson brought along his favorite pig, and remarked that his swine must bring at least $10. Otherwise he would take it home. Green Reeves agreed to bid up and see that the animal brought the $10.

Accordingly, when the animal was put on the block Jackson bid first, offering $5; Reeves raised it to $6, and then in turn Jackson to $7, Reeves to $8, and Jackson to $9, and finally Reeves to $9.50. Jackson, knowing that the 50c bid was Reeves' limit, said, "Let him have the pig!" Reeves nearly fell in a faint, but came across all right, remarking as he took the pig: "You can't trust a friend, now."

TABOR.
Tabor, Nov. 4.—The influenza is still raging in this community. There are very few homes here that have not been visited by this epidemic. Only about one-third of the high school pupils were present at school today. Miss Myrtle McCullough, assistant teacher of Alexander, is unable to teach this week. Miss Maggie Benbow is teaching in her place.

Rev. C. H. Storey preached at high school yesterday afternoon. A very small congregation was present.

Miss Katy Henry and her brother, Roy, visited relatives in this community yesterday.

Wesley Goodman, of Beaumont, spent last week visiting relatives here. There will be speaking at the high school next Sunday afternoon, Nov. 10. It is not known at this time who will speak.

Query Column

What does a private in the British French, Italian and German armies receive?—Reader, Coolidge, Texas.

The base pay of an infantryman in the British army is 1 shilling and 1 penny a day. There are a number of allowances to a British soldier which greatly complicates the system of pay. A shilling and a penny a day is the equivalent, approximately, of 26c a day. The rate of pay for men in the first period of service in France ranges from the equivalent of 1c a day upward. The pay of the common soldier in the German army is about 3c in our money. We have no statistics on the pay of the Italian soldier, but it probably is about equal to that of the French soldier.

J. M. C. Forney, Texas: We can not tell you what division a military company is without knowing the regiment number and the branch of the service, as infantry, field artillery, etc.

More Goods For Same Money

Peace seems to be in sight, but this does not mean low prices on merchandise, by any means. We can, I assure you, look for a further advance in prices on all merchandise—for two years of more—even if peace should come. There will be enormous demands from foreign countries for all kinds of merchandise, and with our thousands of American-made ships to carry these goods abroad, prices will most certainly continue to climb. Rest assured that raw material will remain high, here and everywhere, until the Old World gets on its feet again. So, don't let the low price of cotton mislead you. Naturally, the cotton bull wants to buy just as cheap as possible, and will do his best to hold the market down until all the cotton is in his hands. He wants to buy at his own price and then sell at his own price. The price of cotton, as well as merchandise, is certain to go higher, and those who are in need of merchandise will save money by reading our list of prices and buying from us while we have such a large stock on hand. For, remember, the goods we are now selling will not be duplicated in price for years to come. So, if you want a bargain, buy now, you will agree with us within thirty days that we have made money for you.
